THREE CONVICTS
IN KENTUCKY PRISON
TRY TRACY'S PLAN

Desperate Attempt to Escape
From Frankfort Penitentiary.

TWO SHOT, ONE FATALLY

PRISON IN STATE OF SEIGE FOR FOUR HOURS.

The Mutineers, Armed, Overpowered Guard and Used a Foreman as Human Shield, but were Finally Forced to Surrender.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 20.—While the prisoners were at breakfast in the Kentucky penitentiary this morning, three murderers, Lafayette Brooks of Morgan County, and Wallace Bishop and T. Mulligan of Marion County, made a desperate attempt to escape, in imitation of Outlaw Harry Tracy.

The prison was in an uproar from 6 a.m. until 10 a.m., and before the mutiny was quelled and convicts captured Bishop was fatally wounded. Mulligan was shot in the shoulder and a negro convict, Albert Ronson of Louisville, whom the desperados had pressed into service, was hit by rifle ball.

CAPTURED A GUARD.

The mutiny began while Brooks, Mulligan and Bishop, one of whom had a pistol concealed about his person, were coming out of the dining room. Suddenly one of the convicts drew a weapon and compelled Guard A. H. Gill to give up his arms.

Guard F. F. Hurst, who rushed to Gill's assistance, was also captured by the convicts. Capt. Matt Madigan, acting warden, then rushed forward with six guards and took up a position just beside the group, but no one was wounded.

The convicts then ran across the yard, and at the entrance to the red department of the chain factory captured Charles Williams of Clark County, a foreman. They covered him with their pistols, and placing him between them and the guards, retreated to the rocker department in the chain factory, from whence they could command a good view of the entire yard.

Becker in prison boasts of his skill and declares that when he is free again he will have a new life, and will not spend all his incensity before he went across the bay. He threatens openly to make a greater mess than he has done. All the time in course, convicts upon his not being provided with an income by the bankers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—Charles Becker, an expert forger, whose crimes are said to have cost the banks of the country more than $7,000,000, is nearing the end of his term in San Quentin prison.

J. M. Oliver, secretary to Warden Aguirre of the prison, is authority for the news that when he is released he will receive a pension of $50 a month from the American Bankers' Association. In return for which he must make a good living.

The American association has a fund which is an annual disposal of the protective fund amounting to $300,000, to be used in protecting the bankers of the country as it judges necessary. It is possible that the protective committee might provide for Becker.

WARDEN ACTS PROMPTLY.

By this time several hundred citizens, many of them heavily armed, had gathered at the prison gates. He issued orders for all the shops to close and for the prisoners to be returned at once to their cells.

He then placed a guard of 60 men around the building in which the desperados had barricaded themselves and called on them to surrender. The convicts' only reply was a taunt.

For the protection of Foreman Willis, who then decided to starve the desperados into submission. In about half an hour a note was dropped from the window of the room where the convicts had taken refuge asking Warden Lillard and Deputy Warden Madigan to come up under a flag of truce and deal with them. This demand was ignored.

Shortly after this, Jesse Buckley, former city workhouse keeper, and Morgan Brewer, a former guard at the penitentiary, climbed to the roof of a residence overlooking the building in which the convicts had taken refuge and fired several shots into the room where the desperados were entrenched.

USED HUMAN SHIELD.

They were compelled to desist, however, as Foreman Willis was forced to the window in the line of fire. He called to the men to stop shooting, and informed them that a negro convict and the desperados had forced him to hold his hand to the shoulder. At 10 o'clock another note was dropped from the convicts' window offering to surrender if the men were insured safe delivery to the cellhouse. This request also was ignored.

The convicts requested that Capt. Lillard and Capt. Madigan come in person to escort them, but it was believed that this was merely a ruse to kill the officials.

Later another letter was brought from the desperados by Frank Brooks of Bond County. The note stated that if the warden would come to the head of the steps leading to the red department the convicts would surrender, first sending their weapons down by Frank Brooks.

ROUSE WAS FATAL.

Warden Lillard agreed to accept the terms of this note and, as a matter of precaution, a half dozen guards were placed in the hospital overlooking the red department. Warden Lillard, accompanied by eight men, then proceeded to the foot of the stairway. Suddenly the crack of a Winchester was heard, showing that the note was but a ruse.

"We got Bishop," shouted a guard. "He is dead."

The prisoners had emerged from the room as they had planned, with hands up, but they presented down the stairs. Bishop dropped his hands to his side as if to draw a weapon. He had hardly made the motion when one of the warden's party fired, the bullet striking Bishop in the breast, inflicting a fatal wound.

When Bishop fell, Mulligan and Brooks sank to their knees, begging the warden to save their lives, and by 10:30 o'clock the two desperados, heavily shackled and accompanied by 10 men with drawn pistols, were placed in their cells and quiet had been restored.

After the men had been securely locked up it was discovered that Mulligan had been wounded in the shoulder, though he was not seriously hurt.

CAR OVERTURNED;
WOMAN INJURED

Conductor Bascom Moore Had Leg Broken.

ACCIDENT ON GRAND AVENUE
MRS. BERGER, ONLY PASSENGER, THROWN OUT.

Car Jumped Track While Going at Full Speed and Turned Partial Somersault—Both in Hospital.

Transit car No. 229, Grand avenue division, jumped the track at Grand avenue and Osage street, Wednesday afternoon, and injured Mrs. Emma Berger of 459 South Eleventh street and Conductor Bascom Moore of 354 South Jefferson avenue.

Mrs. Berger was the only passenger on the car.

The car turned completely over when it left the track and was left lying upside down. Mrs. Berger and Moore were buried in the street. Moore suffered a fracture of the leg and Mrs. Berger sustained a fracture of the arm. Both were sent to St. John's Hospital for treatment and the woman was sent to the Lutheran Hospital and Potomac street.

Her condition is serious.

Street car men say that they cannot account for the accident. The car jumped grade while speeding down a sharp grade, but many cars had passed the spot in safety.

BANKERS TO PENSION FORGER

American Association Will Pay Charles Becker $500 a Month Just "to

SECRETARY SHAW'S CRUSADE

He Has Forbidden Gambling by Treasury Employees and Requires Them to Pay Debts.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Treasury Secretary Shaw has forbidden employees of his department to gamble.

Several of them who have been playing poker and the horse races have been reduced, some from $100 to $100 a year. They have also been changed to other branches of the service. A repetition of the offense will mean dismissal.

The habit some of the employees have of not paying their debts must also be changed. Debts must be paid on penalty of dismissal.

FAIR TONIGHT, SAYS HYATT

Thunderstorms, However, Are Possible for Thursday, He Declares.

"Generally fair Wednesday night with possibly local thunderstorms Thursday."

is the weather story for this 20th of August, 1902.

On the north, however, west the barometric is 'way up like the mountains in the southwest. It is low as are the deserts.

Wednesday was rainy in the upper

Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys. In the lake region and the Ohio valley. Elsewhere the weather was fair and sky. The mercury in St. Louis thermometers has been going up all morning and will continue to rise slowly.

FAME.

"Who would a-thought it?
Here's John turned out to be a writer for the papers."

"D'you tell?"

"The fact! Here's a paper what says he sells bacon cheaper, an' they just can't beat him on flour, an' his name signed to the whole place."

THIS WOMAN SCATTERS SUNSHINE

MRS. CYNTHIA WESTOVER ALDEN,
President-General of the International Sunshine Society.

Society Organized by Mrs. Cynthia Westover Alden Has Prospered Wonderfully Since the Sunshine Column Has Been Published in the Post-Dispatch.

Mrs. Cynthia Westover Alden, president-general of the International Sunshine So-society, spent Tuesday in St. Louis, the guest of Mrs. F. W. Baumhoff, secretary and treasurer of the Missouri branch of the so-cietry. She left St. Louis enroute to Hot Springs Tuesday night.

With Mrs. C. V. Trowbridge, editor of the Sunshine column in the Sunday Post-Di-patch. Mrs. Alden said that since the Post-

Dispatch, which is the official Sunshine organ for Missouri, had published Sunshine news the membership of the society had increased to over 1200 members.

The story of the Sunshine Society, as told by its founder, Mrs. Alden, is a tale of fact which seems like fiction. Sunshine is the child of a newspaper office. Mrs. Alden, a "newspaper woman" is its mother.

The name Sunshine tells the creed of the society: the motto of the Sunshiners, there are over 100,000 in the United States, "Good work is the exact function of the organization.

"Cheer up," that's the Sunshine idea.

Sunshiners devote their attention to bracing up the world, making it a paradise for men, women and children. They do this by

POST-DISPATCH RECORD OF FINANCES

BETTER FEELING IN LOCAL SECURITIES

LIVELY TRADING WEDNESDAY IN BANK AND TRUST STOCKS.

TRACTIONS WERE FIRMER

Rumors of Important Business Coupes Planned by Commerce and Germany Caused Inside Buying.

There was a marked better tone to the St. Louis stock market today and trading was lively in tractions, banks and trust companies, and sold liberal up to 31%, asked price yesterday. Another was bought at 31%. The close was strong at 30. 31% and 31% were offered. Preferred sold at 84% with 34% last offer. Preferred stocks were changed hands at 75% that afternoon being bid and 75% at the close.

All the bank stocks showed strength, including First National, which was then being profitably held with a stock from $335.50 to $33.50 yesterday to $337.50 today, with sales from $333 to $33. National Bank had the most attention in the banking list, owing to continued rumors of large outside buying during the past week. The stock closed weak yesterday at $352.50, bid $350, asked $352. At the opening today the first bid was $353, with $340 asked. It progressed steadily and continued to hold up to 34% bid and $348 asked. No sales were recorded. It is stated on highest authority that Commerce will be here in its place for some time, owing to the fact that several institutions of importance are now under construction. Boatmen was offered at $20, with $18 bid and $18 asked. First Stock was offered at $20, but was not wanted. American Exchange was bid up 1 point to 20. 20%.

The trust division shared the strength of the bank and tractions. Germania led the list, advancing from 100 to 102.50 to 103.25. This was brought about by almost exclusive inside buying. Good and stocks were sold from 125 to 125. Lincoln Trust, which had been sold at 127 and closed at 125.50 asked. Missouri Trust was the last to sell, but was not sold up to press hour for this report, but it was anticipated that they would bring up to 125. The market was good and prices steady in general.
